Legal Claims Supported

- First Amendment (42 U.S.C. § 1983): Retaliation for lawful recording (Fordyce, Glik, Irizarry, Nieves, Umbehr), contradicted by lack of signage or lawful orders (Exhibits C & D).
- Fourth Amendment (42 U.S.C. § 1983): Arrest and vehicle seizure without probable cause, warrant, or exigency (Devenpeck, Soldal, Thompson).
- Fifth Amendment (42 U.S.C. § 1983): Delayed Miranda warning (Exhibit D, 0:20:56).

- 1 • Fourteenth Amendment (42 U.S.C. § 1983): Procedural due process violations
2 (Mathews, Parratt); economic harm from retaliatory tow and implied blacklisting (Meyer
3 v. Nebraska, 262 U.S. 390 (1923); County of Sacramento v. Lewis, 523 U.S. 833 (1998)).
- 4 • Municipal Liability: Sheriff's Office exhibited a custom or policy of retaliatory
5 enforcement (Monell v. Dep't of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658 (1978)), as shown in Exhibits
6 C, D, and E.
- 7 • State Law Claims: False imprisonment (NRS 200.460), unlawful taking (NRS
8 205.2715), oppression under color of law (NRS 197.200), defamation, and interference
9 with business expectancy (28 U.S.C. § 1367).
- 10
- 11
- 12

13 14 Summary Judgment Purpose (Fed. R. Civ. P. 56)

15
16 Exhibit F contains Defendant's own sworn statements and administrative records, which are 17 flatly contradicted by video evidence in Exhibits C, D, and E. The absence of "No Trespassing"
18 signs (Exhibit C), no lawful order (Exhibit D), and retaliatory language surrounding the tow
19 (Exhibit E) create undisputed facts showing constitutional violations. These entitle Plaintiff to 20 judgment as a matter of law.
21
22

23 24 Qualified Immunity Defeat

25
26 Defendants' actions violated clearly established rights per Pearson v. Callahan, 555 U.S. 223
27 (2009):
28

- 1 • Violations: First Amendment retaliation (Fordyce, Glik, Irizarry, Nieves, Umbehr);
2 Fourth Amendment arrest and seizure (Devenpeck, Soldal, Thompson); procedural due
3 process (Mathews, Parratt); Miranda (Miranda).
- 4 • Clearly Established: Rights were long established before 2022.
- 5 • Unreasonable Conduct: Arrest and tow lacked lawful basis and were carried out with 6 retaliatory motive—objectively unreasonable under Kingsley v. Hendrickson, 576 U.S.
7 389 (2015); Harlow v. Fitzgerald, 457 U.S. 800 (1982).
8
9

10 11 Supporting Evidence

12 Plaintiff's submission of an affidavit confirming truck ownership, non-consent to the tow, and 13
14 economic harm to Plaintiff's business, A&A Towing, Inc.
15
16

17 18 Authentication

19
20 Per Fed. R. Evid. 901, I, Drew J. Ribar, declare under penalty of perjury this arrest report,
21 incident report, and impound record (Bates EX001–EX015) were obtained via discovery in Case

The undersigned declarant, a Peace Officer of the City-County of Carson City, hereby declares under penalty of perjury, that the above-named defendant (or defendants) has been arrested on probable cause and is subject to detention for the offense(s) stated on the attached criminal complaint. Either personally or upon information and belief this officer learned the following facts and circumstances which support the arrest and detention:

On 8/30/2022 at 1353 hours, I responded to 1721 Snyder Ave, Northern Nevada Correctional Center (NNCC) in reference to a suspicious subject on prison property. Prison Officials advised Dispatch, a male subject was parked on prison property, refusing to leave. We routinely respond to prisons in Carson City for suspicious activity, especially vehicles, due to concerns of potential involvement in escape.

Upon arrival, I made contact with Sgt. Smith from Nevada Department of Corrections, he described responding to meet with a male subject, later identified as Drew Ribar, who parked on the prison entrance road and began filming restricted areas. Sgt. Smith advised Drew the area was restricted State property and he was not authorized to remain on the property or continue his activities. Sgt. Smith instructed Drew on how to obtain authorization to film on the prison grounds, but the subject refused and began walking toward the main prison gates, while filming the area, including fence lines and security measures as well as private vehicles of staff in the parking lot.

Due to the security risk posed to the property, staff and inmates, as Drew was uncooperative and ignoring lawful orders to leave and without knowing his further intentions, Sgt. Smith initiated a lock down of the entire facility and surrounding areas. This includes moving hundreds of inmates and staff to secure locations and verifying everyone is accounted for and the facility is secure.

As the Drew approached the main gates and fence line, Lt. Aaron Ryer contacted him and told him multiple times to leave the property. Drew refused all orders to leave and continued filming the sensitive security areas.

Warden Frazier Fernandeis, was alerted to the situation and contacted Drew in front of the administrative building. Warden Fernandeis asked Drew to identify himself, but Drew refused. Warden Fernandeis then repeated orders to leave the property immediately and to cease filming security measures on the property. Drew refused and continued disrupting all operations in the facility and on the property.

WHEREFORE, Declarant requests that a finding be made by a magistrate that probable cause exists to hold the said person for preliminary hearing (if offense charged is a felony or gross misdemeanor) or for trial (if charge is a misdemeanor).

Warden Fernandeis requested Drew be taken into custody. I placed Drew in handcuffs, ensured proper fit and secured him in my patrol vehicle. Drew wanted to debate and argue his position and rights. He was Mirandized, though he declined to answer questions, opting to continue with his own. I declined to debate the situation with him further and transported him to the jail where he was booked for Trespassing, Obstructing and Public Officer and Disturbing the Peace of Public Grounds.

Dep. Palamar assisted in obtaining statements from involved parties and towing Drew's vehicle from the property.

Summary Narrative

Supplemental Report

Narrative

On 08-30-2022, at about 1359 hours, I was dispatched to 1721 Snyder Av (NNCC) for a subject who as trespassing.

I arrived with Deputy Bueno and we spoke with a Department of Corrections Sergeant who said a male subject, Drew Ribar, parked on the side of the road at the entrance to the prison and refused to leave after being instructed to do so by prison staff. The sergeant said they had to put the prison and the work camp into lockdown due to the security risk. He said Drew walked down to the parking lot and was walking around filming.

Deputy Bueno and I responded to the parking lot and found the Warden speaking with Drew. The Warden said he had asked Drew to leave the property but he had refused. Deputy Bueno approached Drew and put him into handcuffs. While he was being handcuffs I took control of the camera Drew was holding and handed it to one of the correctional officers that was standing there. I walked with Deputy Bueno while he escorted Drew to Deputy Bueno's patrol car. The correction officer handed Drew's camera equipment back to me. I turned off the equipment and put on the floor of Deputy Bueno's patrol car.

I remained on scene and collected statements from prison staff. Deputy Bueno asked me to take care of the tow for Drew's truck that was on the prison property.

I called for a tow and Cal Neva towing arrived. The tow driver told me Drew was at his tow yard about 20 minutes before Drew arrived at the prison. Drew told him how he was going to go to the prison to do filming. The driver cautioned Drew against entering the prison property.

I took pictures of Drew's truck and completed the tow form. Cal Neva towed the truck to their yard.

See Deputy Bueno's report for further.
